FOREWO

It has been our aim to suggest to you a panorama of the school's progress in its first year, to depict vividly student activities and to recreate for you incidents and associations which have made this school year a happy one. If we have succeeded in this, then we are content in the pleasure which this volume will afford.

Marcella Dunman registered first for classes. She was lucky enough to pick number one out of 158 numbers for registering.

During two days of registration, Eastern Hills High School came to life. The halls awoke as a wave of 840 noisy students began their first year in a new school. The School colors, blue, gray, and white, as well as the team name, "Highlanders," were chosen to identify the student body, while newly elected cheerleaders inspired enthusiasm among them.

New equipment was bought for the P.E. Departments as money was raised by various drives.

And to "top it all off" students had a chance to meet that certain someone at a get-acquainted dance.

September Forms Traditions

"Oh my aching biceps!" moans George Bradford. It might be worth it with Georgia Kay Mills, Linda Tomlin, Sally Welch, Nancy Armstrong, Patti Inglis and Athelyn Jackson as nurses. He was injured in the first football game, and was unable to play all season.

While Kathie Haucisen asked the big question, Elizabeth Beckham answered it. With an entertaining sales kickoff, Clan sales began to mount.

Anxiety finally gave way to ecstasy when the first cheerleaders for the school were announced.

After the Birdville game, presentation of Howdy King and Queen was made. Loma Crider and Bill Roper were the first to reign over the school.

Juniors and Seniors discussed ideas for term themes, as homework became the order of the day.

Participating in a school-wide contest, student poets and composers expressed devotion for their new school. From among four songs that were submitted to the student body in an assembly, the present Alma Mater was chosen.

October Calm And

In an assembly on October 1, Jan Farley, president of Y-Teens, presented the official Highlander flag to the band president, Larry Self.

The flag, which is blue satin with letters and the Highlander emblem in white satin, is used whenever the band marches.

EASTERN HILLS ALMA MATER

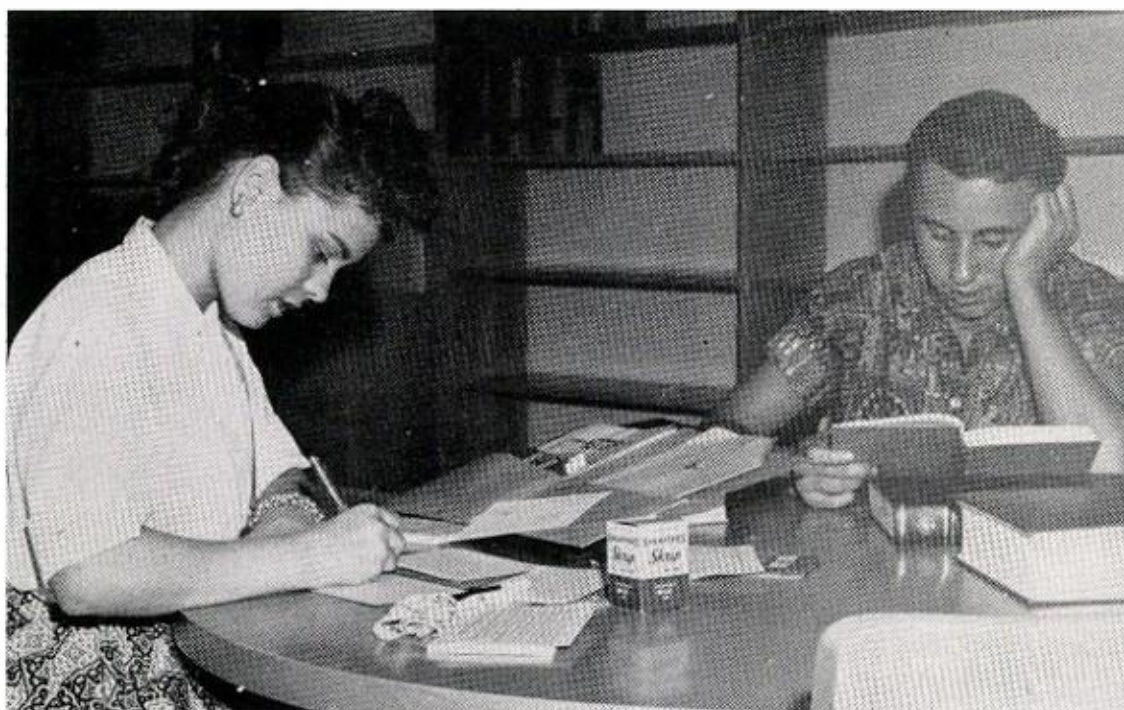

Dear Eastern Hills, awake the sun,
As we arise, life's race to run.
Your hallowed halls with mem'ries ring;
Our joyful hearts and voices sing.
Hail, gallant team, you heed our victory cry!
Hail, school supreme, we hold your colors
high!
'Though life's great peaks may give us
thrills,
You are the summit, Eastern Hills!

O, how we love to sing your praise:
Our pride in you fulfills our days.
Within these walls we've come to know
Where, throughout life, our paths should go.
Now we would strive (because for you we must),
To keep alive a flame of faith and trust.
Wisdom and hope in us instill.
Dear Alma Mater, Eastern Hills!

Beautiful and talented Judy Lingenfelter wrote both lyrics and music for the Alma Mater.

Studious

Term themes gave headaches to many Juniors and Seniors. Rita Patterson and Roger Kantz did research and spent much time writing notecards, outlines and bibliographies for theirs.

This is the standard ring style for all future Highlanders chosen by the '59-'60 student body.

November

November was a month for queens. The Band Sweetheart was crowned at the Brewer game. Then the Football Queen was crowned November 12. This started Booster Day activities, on which occasion next year, Eastern Hills will be host to all exes. A victory over Diamond Hill climaxed the two-day activities.

Robert Gipson measures accuracy in his drawing of the school. Also sketching are Josephine Ramey and Ann Gilbert.

Crowns Queens

Football Queen nominees were Georgia Mills, Nan Logan, Nancy Armstrong, Barbara Bruton, Susan Moody, Linda Denny and Rita Patterson.

Suspense, surprise and sobs of sheer joy were Diann Jordan's emotions at the Thursday night pep rally at which the Football Queen was presented.

The Doll Shop had a large shipment for the Christmas program. The Y-Teen girls, dressed like dolls, were given away to good little boys on December 18. Santa read the letters and elves delivered the dolls.

December, Charitable And

The cafeteria took on a new look with blue, gray, and white table decorations in a Christmas theme. Among the guests for the football banquet were Steve Hilliard with Janet Parsons, Gus Bierman with Judy Mack, and Barbara Bruton with Floyd Cox.

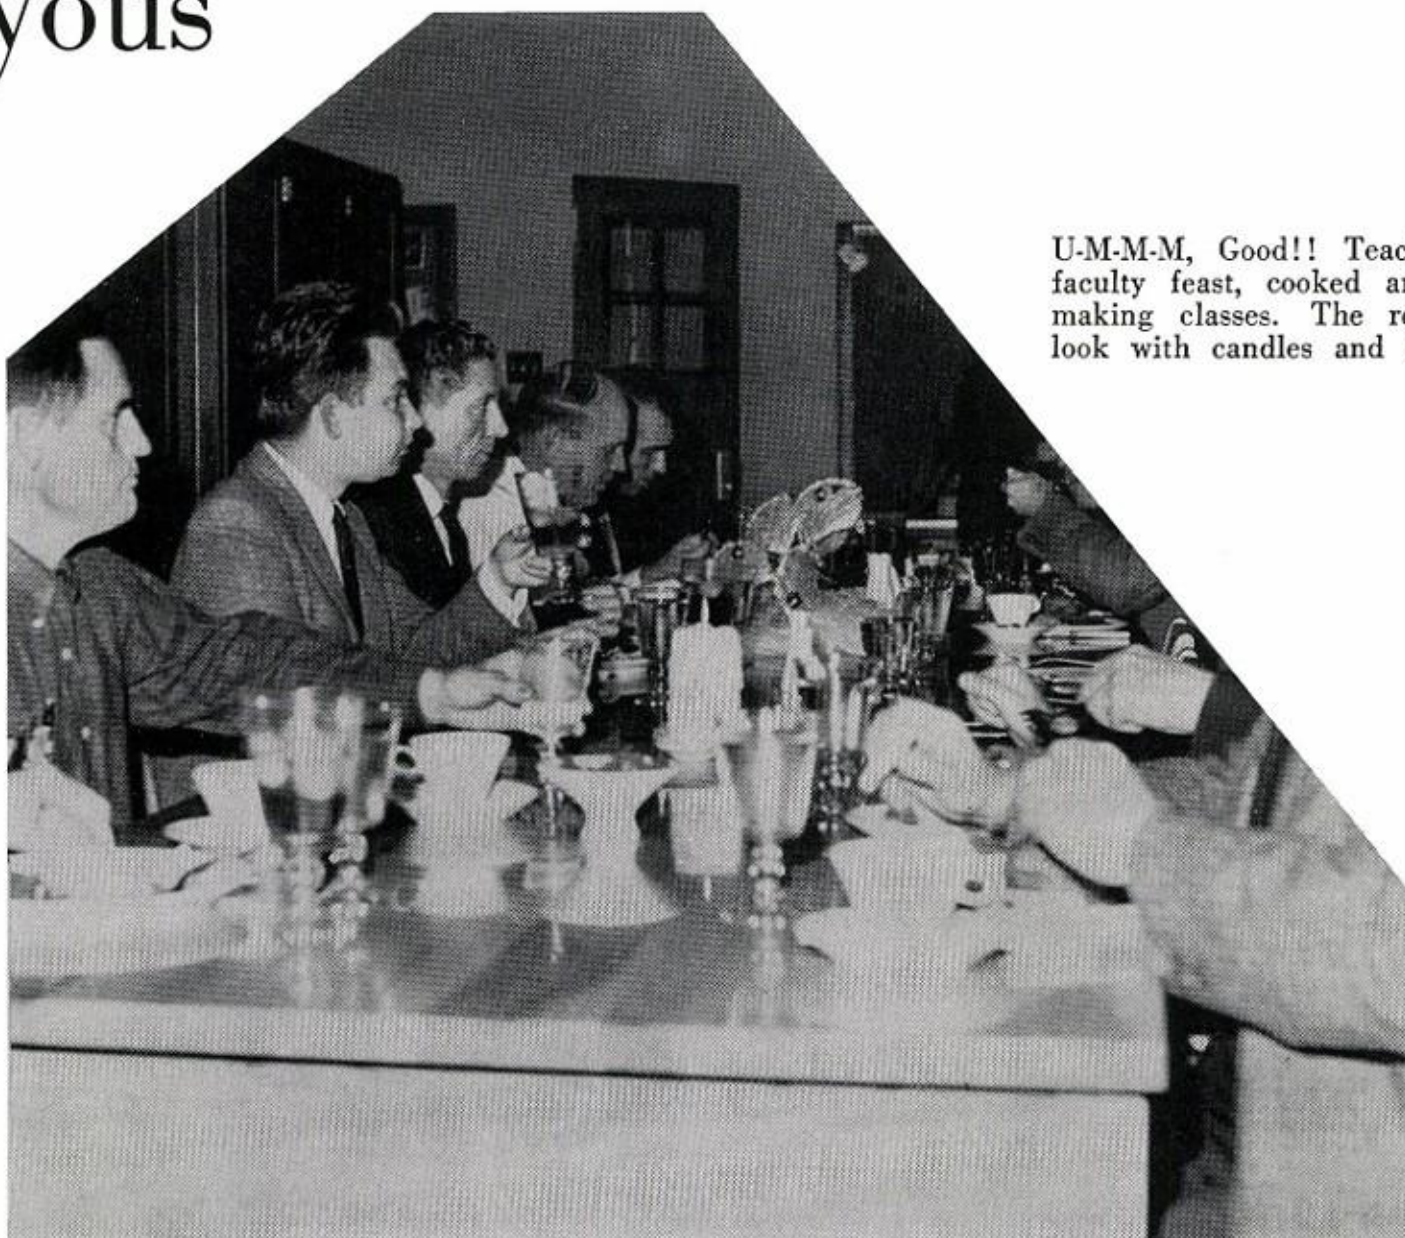

The air was full of the spirit of the season. Many classes donated canned food and money for needy families. Miss Baker and the chorus presented a beautiful program on the last day before Christmas vacation.

In the front hall, the traditional tree was placed in time for the football banquet. Seniors sold candy to help pay for the senior banquet in the spring. All members of dramatics class were required to give one-act plays and two top plays were given to the entire school. Y-Teen girls and dates attended the formal Christmas dance at the Y.W.C.A.

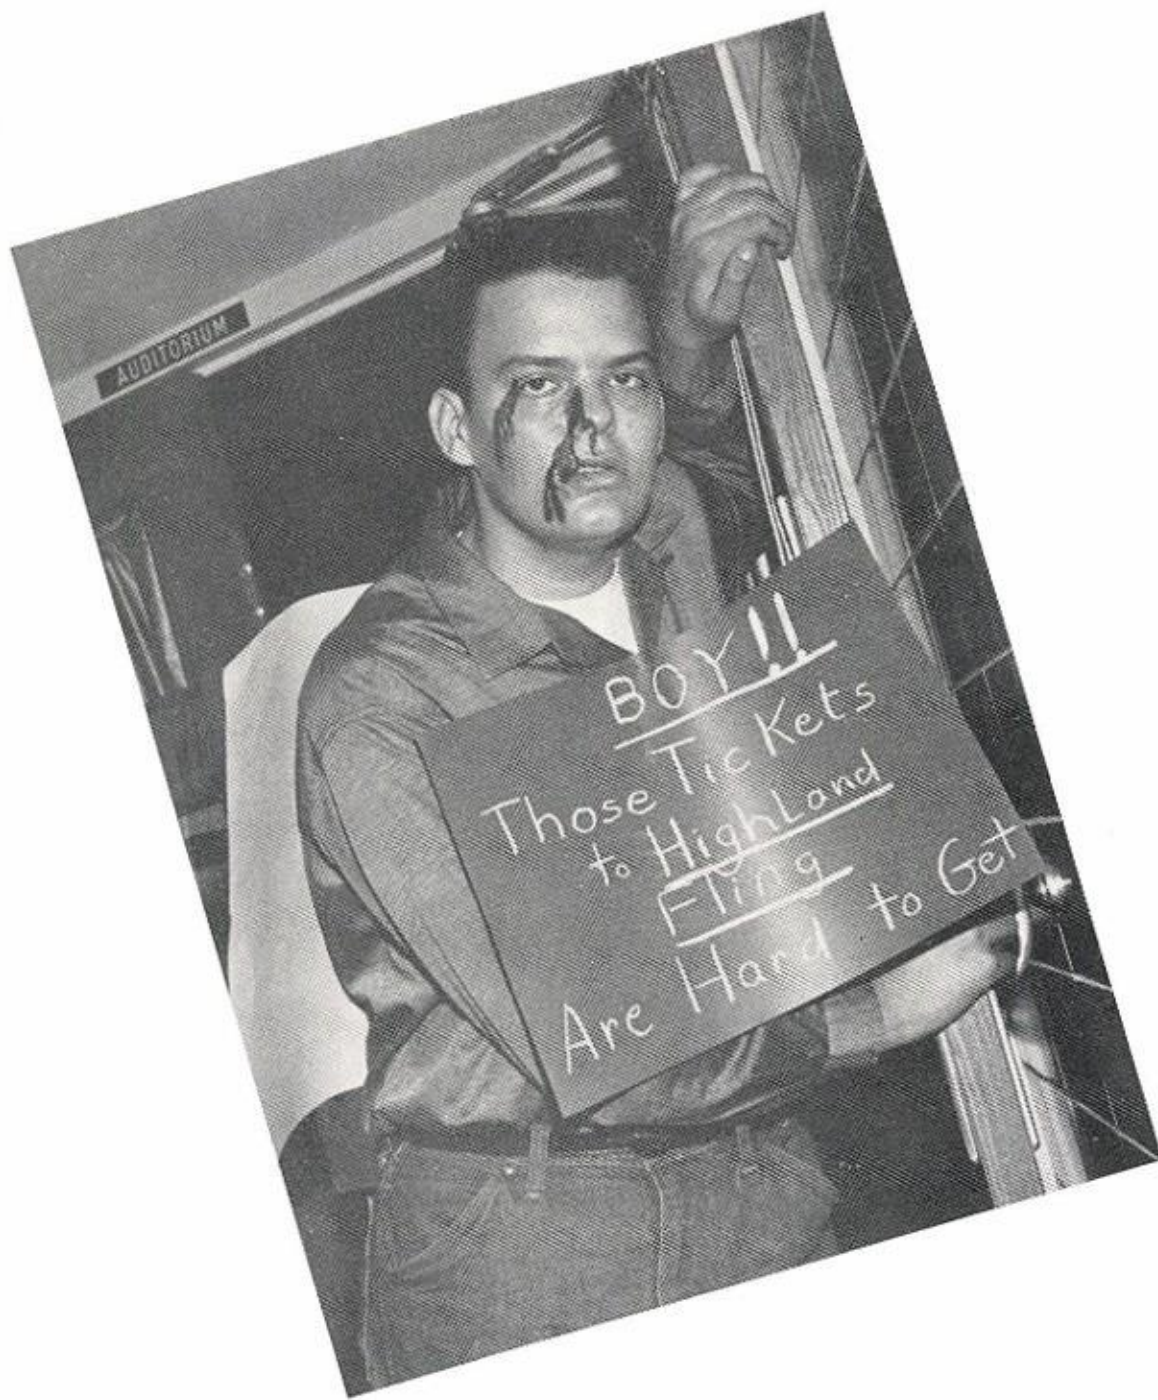

Fresh Christmas cakes, cookies, and candy were sold by the Girls' Recreation Association to buy baseball uniforms. Beth Bourdonnay, Nancy Abshire, and Carolyn Ransom assist Miss Moore and Miss Crump in the sale.

Joyous

U-M-M-M, Good!! Teachers eat heartily at the faculty feast, cooked and served by the home-making classes. The room took on a seasonal look with candles and Christmas-decorated cacti.

January Ends

Alan Thompson shows just how hard it was to buy Fling tickets. Mrs. Hockett's hand in make-up helped to advertise the first talent show.

The speech and art departments were busy painting a Scottish landscape for the Highland Fling. Band uniforms arrived and were first worn in the Stock Show parade. Last minute cramming was done for mid-term exams. A "T" Dance helped to pay for basketball uniforms. Y-Teen girls did odd jobs, giving the proceeds for baseball uniforms.

Hold it! Even in rehearsal, Carolyn Kynard looked astonished, thinking her mistress would find her meddling.

First Semester

Busy little bees painted up high on the Highland Fling sets. Jim Le Beau and Tony Brogdon applied paint to the sky of the Scottish landscape.

While some were still trying to get a good schedule for the spring semester, the remaining students went to Pat's. Tommy Bratcher threatened to drink hot sauce under the watchful eyes of a few unbelievers.

Best-dressed cowpoke was Pete Reaves while Ronnie Mason had the best beard on Ranch Day. For best-dressed special wear, Sharon Reeves took honors and for best-dressed everyday wear, Carol Spina took the award.

Two long-awaited events took place—the Highland Fling and ordering of senior rings. Many students and teachers worked hard and long to achieve the first successful talent show. Seniors brought deposits and ordered 1960 class rings.

Beards, boots, cowboy hats and chaps became the mode for Ranch Day.

The Highlandettes sponsored the election of a King and Queen of Hearts who were crowned at a Valentine dance.

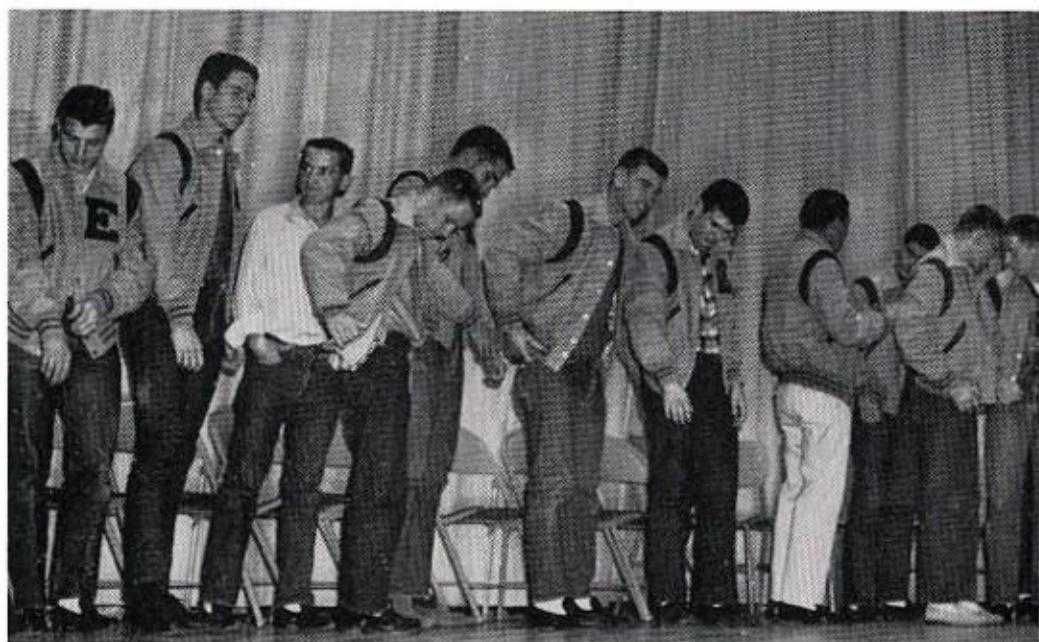

February Entertains

In the Highland Fling, "Cooking Maria," Donna Rankin, had two very helpful assistants, Judy Wall and Judy Akers. David Bauguess served as recipe writer for the unscrupulous cook.

After completing a good season in football, the team proudly put on the first blue and gray letter jackets which had just been presented to them in assembly.

Kenneth Lucas
Nancy Armstrong
KING AND QUEEN OF HEARTS

Eastern Hills' first graduate, Milton Strange, received his diploma in a special assembly.

During Public School Week, visitors poured into the school for an Open House on Monday night sponsored by the P.T.A. and Boosters' Club.

On Saint Patrick's Day, the girls' P.E. department served host to an annual city-wide folk dance clinic. Stage crews began work on the senior play, "I Remember Mama."

At last! the second and largest shipment of the Clan was ready to be sent. (Staff members had worked evenings trying to meet the deadline.) Judy Klabzuba made sure it was registered, stamped, and mailed.

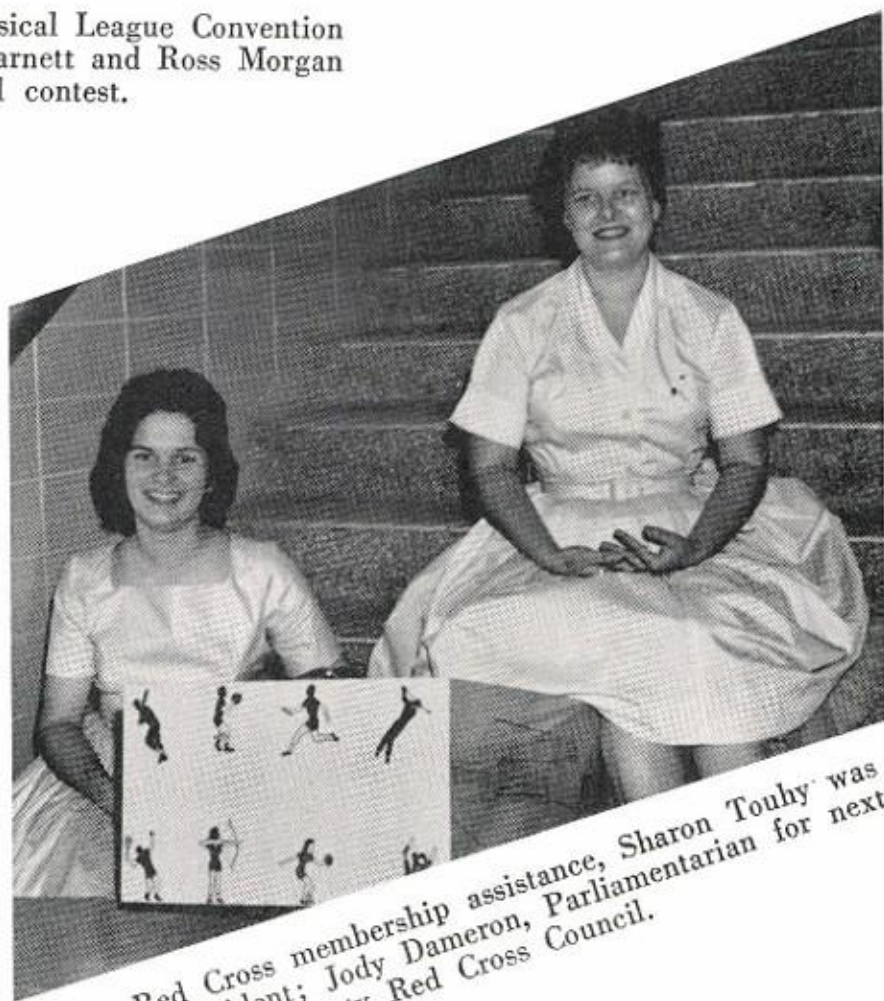

March Breezes By . . .

Seniors finally received their rings after waiting for a time that seemed like eternity. The very first three to beat the rush were Tommy Bratcher, Gene Bickley, and Terry Horton.

At the state Junior Classical League Convention in Port Arthur, Linda Barnett and Ross Morgan placed first in the vocal contest.

With Red Cross membership assistance, Sharon Touhy was elected President; Jody Dameron, Parliamentarian for next year's Tarrant County Red Cross Council.

April Presents Awards

Rehearsing for "I Remember Mama" kept the cast at school every afternoon until late. Y-Teens raised money at the "April in Paris" dance to pay for baseball uniforms. Y-Teens also presented "Welcome to Spring," a fashion show carried out through a Japanese theme.

Miss Baker's chorus presented a religious Easter program just before the Easter holidays. Wooden boxes painted gray with blue drawings of the school and athletic activities, were made and filled with useful articles for overseas shipment by the Red Cross.

A number of trophies and cups were presented to the school by all who had earned them.

At the program for the presentation of the National Honor Society charter, Nancy Armstrong handed Mrs. Tucker an un-abridged dictionary to be presented to Mr. Meacham, retiring Assistant Superintendent of Schools, who was guest speaker of the occasion.

Rachelann Blocker played Mama, a thrifty, loving mother, in "I Remember Mama."

The play, "I Remember Mama," started Senior activities. The picnic at Camp Carter preceded Senior Day, when Mr. and Miss Eastern Hills and Who's Who were presented in assembly.

Wishing wells and flowers decorated the Colonial Country Club for the dinner dance. Celebrating the successful completion of exams, Seniors turned their rings at the presentation ball.

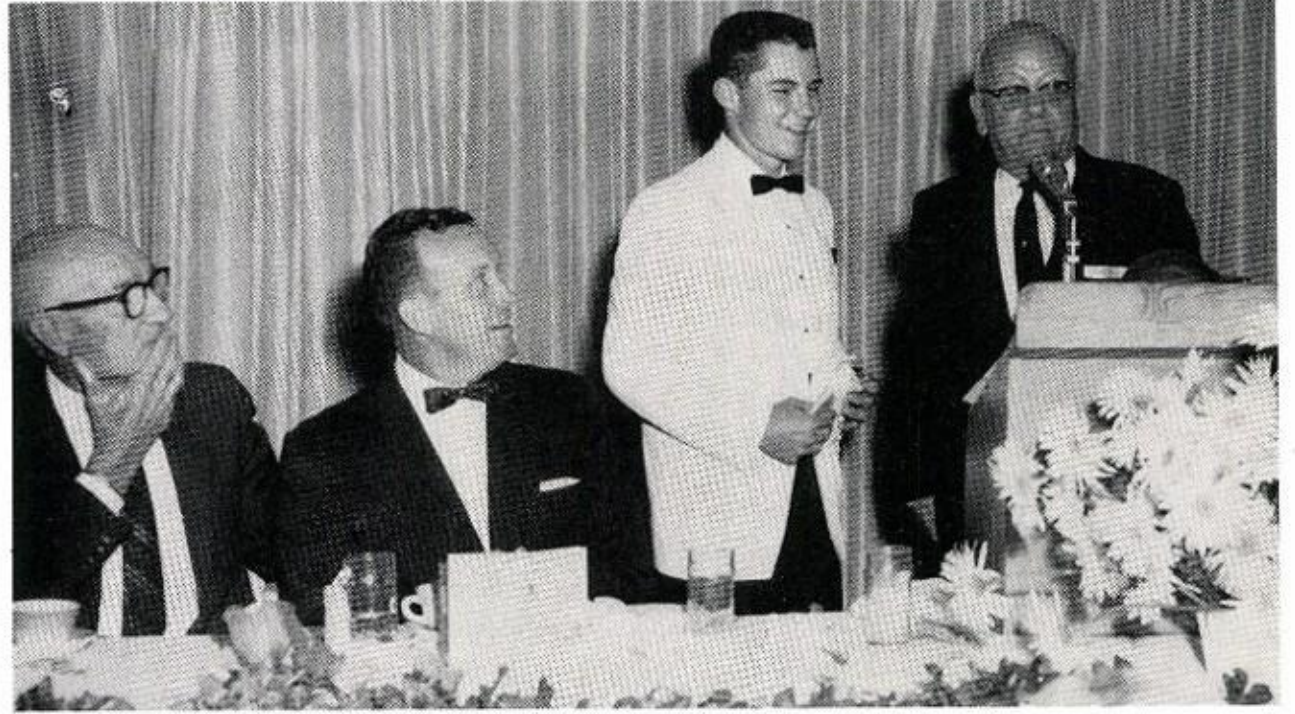

May Whirls With

Play . . .

Baseball, Bermudas, barbecue, and swimming replaced school work for a while during the Senior picnic.

Mr. Meacham and Mr. Johnson look on while Lynn Spain introduces Mr. Byers at the dinner dance.

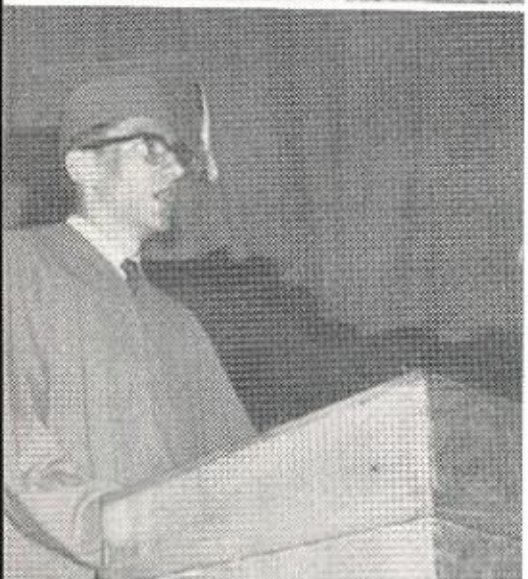

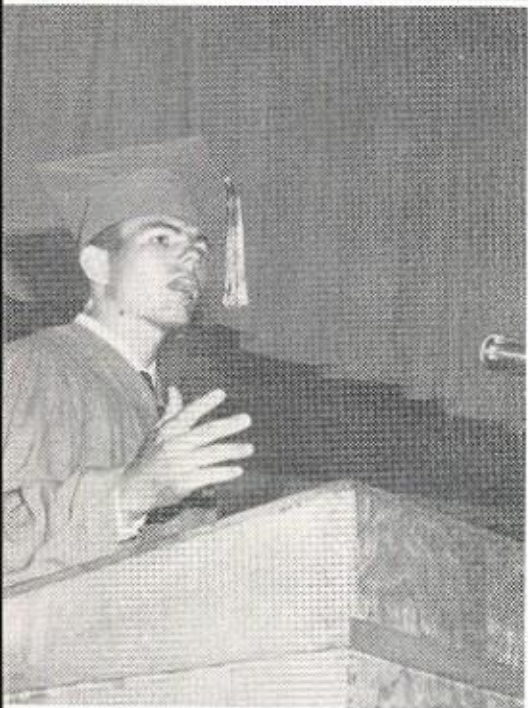

Eddie Bloomfield turns Athelyn Jackson's ring in a garden setting used for the presentation ball at the Meadowbrook Country Club.

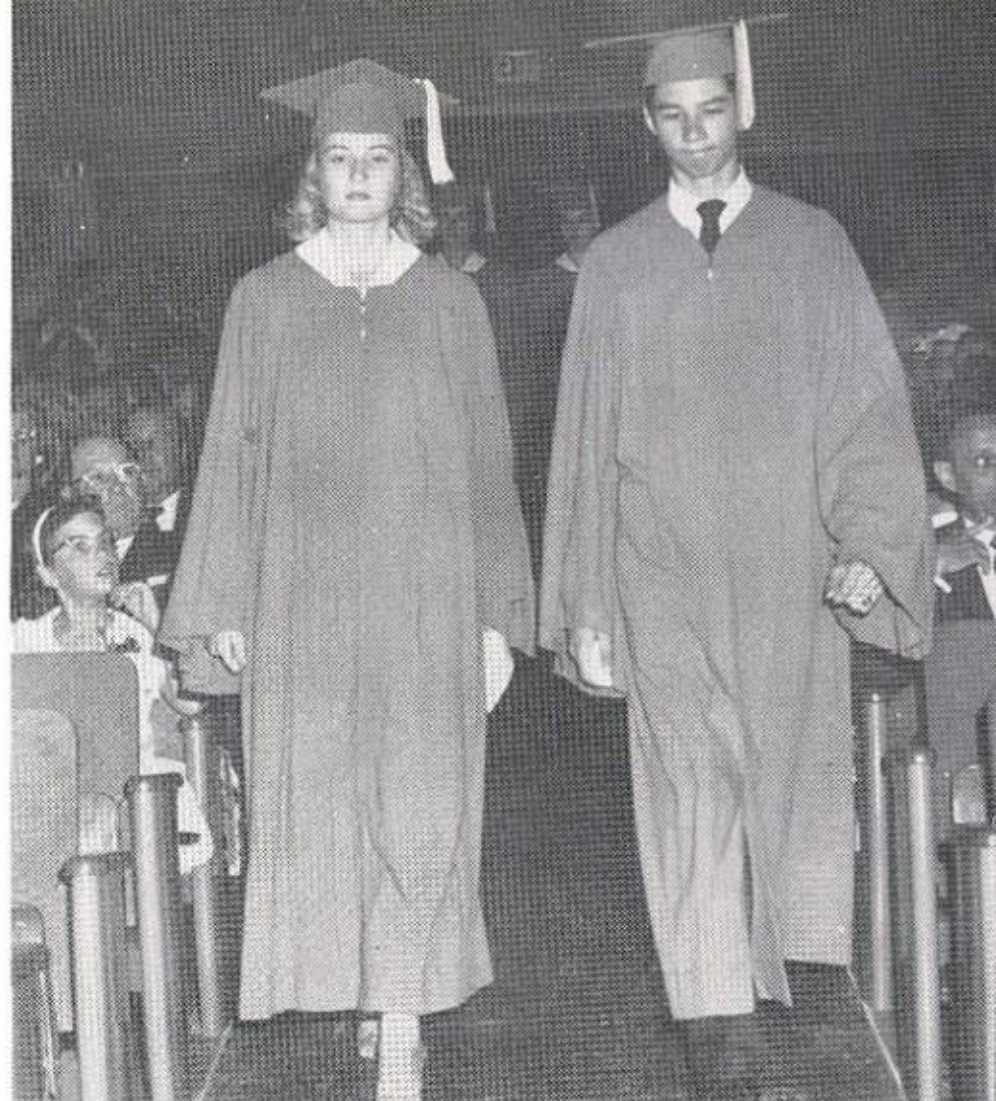

Judge Atwood McDonald presented a scholarship to Martha Meissner.

Tommy Bratcher also received an honor scholarship.

Tom Paukert paid tribute to the graduates' parents.

Giving the benediction, Beth Bourdonnay formally closed the first Commencement exercises.

As strains of "God of Our Fathers" filled the air, Jane Bates and Wayne Carter, followed by others of the Senior class, marched to their reserved seats for Baccalaureate services.

And Graduates One

Baccalaureate sermon was given by Rev. N. H. Kupferle, seated here to the right of Mr. Johnson and Rev. Stanley Brown.

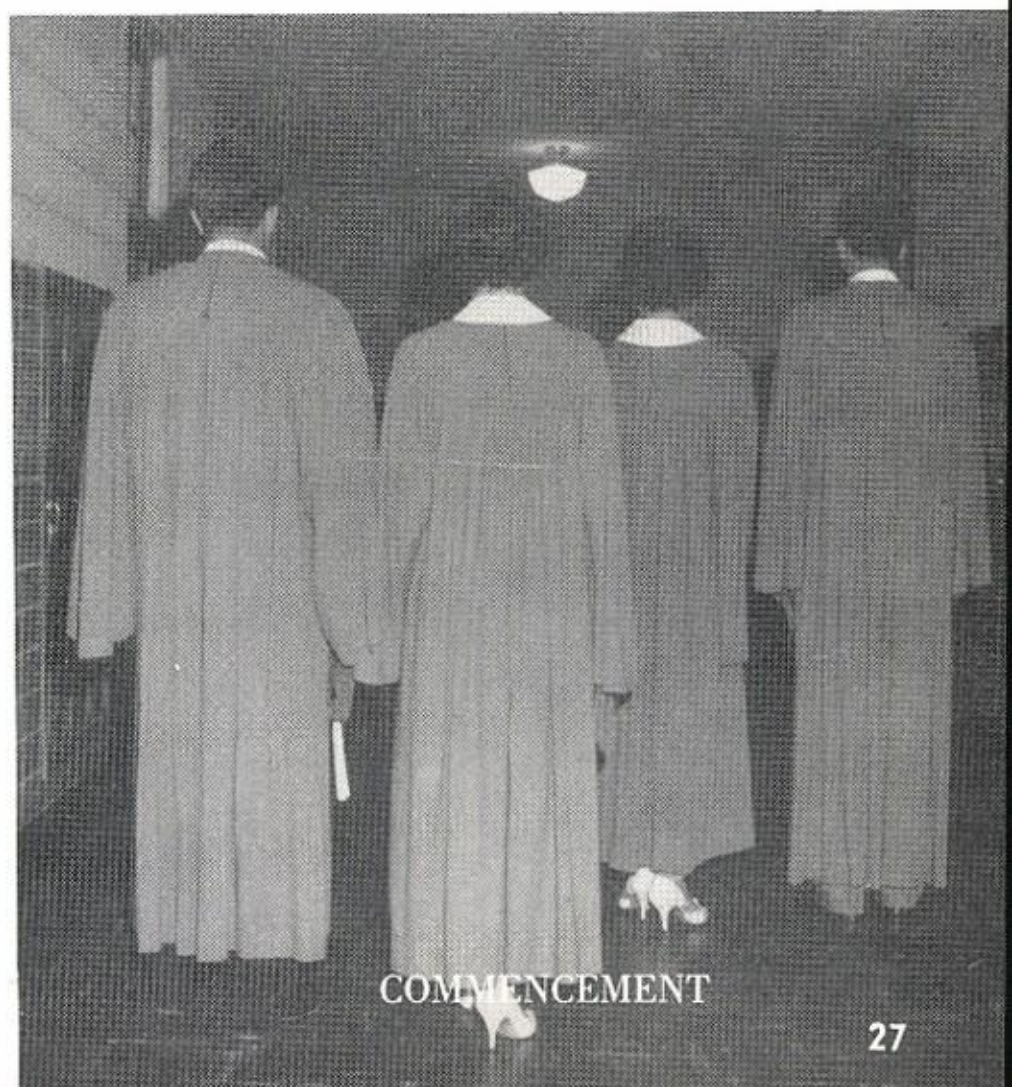

The girls' ensemble of Eastern Hills sang their sentiments in the song, "You'll Never Walk Alone." Later, Mr. Johnson awarded diplomas to the first graduating class of Eastern Hills High School.

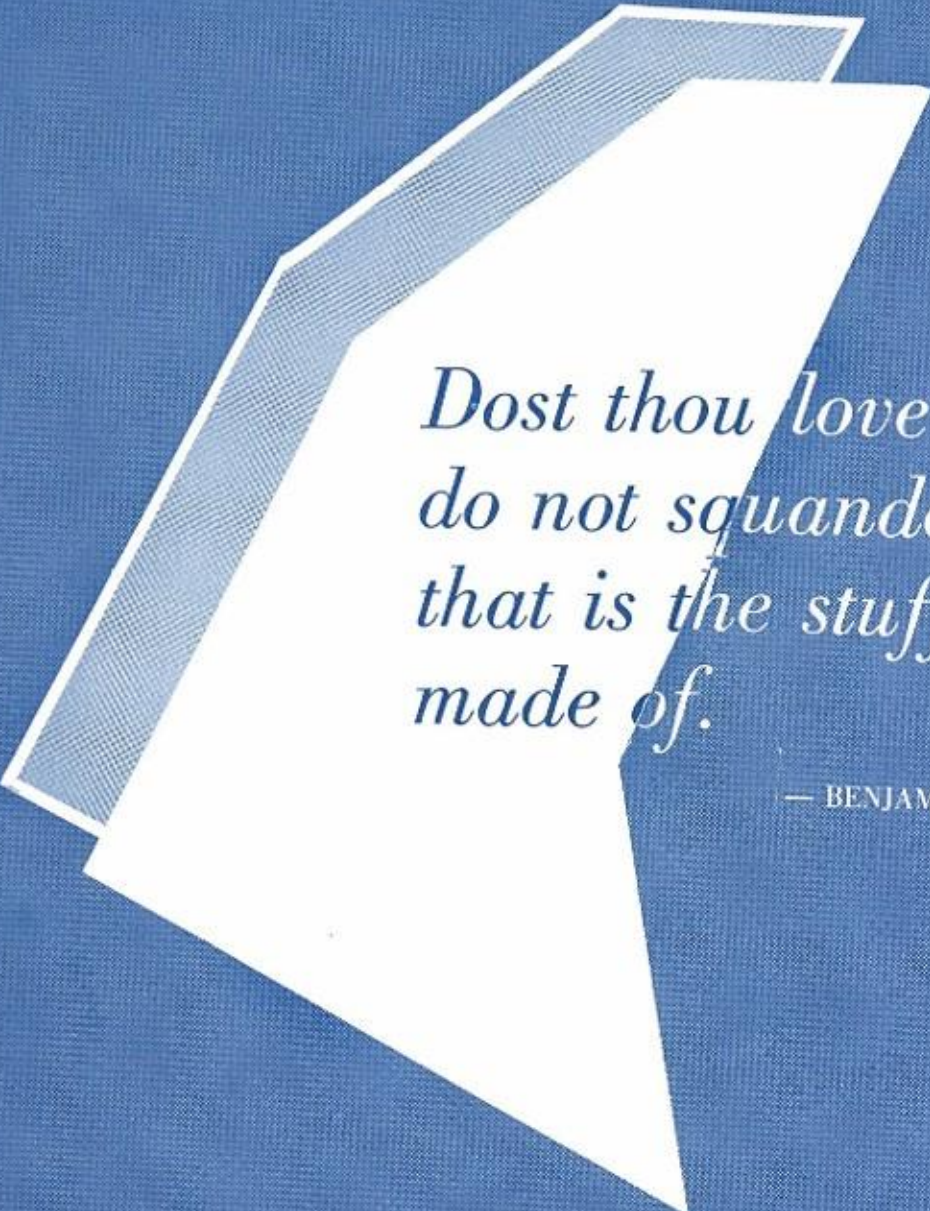

Hundred Forty-Three

Graduation marked the close of many memorable associations. Commencement opened the door for tomorrow and its world.

Thus, the first graduation of Eastern Hills came to a close. It seemed that the year had passed all too quickly. Yet, each graduate knew that the Highlander spirit would live on in his heart as had the words, "All for one, and one for all."

Mrs. Young, the school nurse, instructs White, Wilson, Armstrong, Tuohy, Alcock, and Hodges in first aid.

“Safety First”

The Junior Red Cross has sponsored many worthwhile projects this year. Eastern Hills had the highest membership percentage of any other school in Fort Worth. Two homeroom representatives were chosen from each homeroom—one to represent the homeroom, the other to serve as an alternate.

Is Observed

Miss Crump and Miss Moore, along with the officers, Autry, Norris, and Armstrong, draw the plans for the gift chests to be made for the needy overseas.

Leading the school spirit during the football season was one of the many activities of the Senior Y-Teens. They also attended an overnight campout at Camp Yo-Wo-Chia last fall.

Y-Teens Add Fun, Interest

The Junior Y-Teens planned a spring fashion show to pay the expenses of next year's officers to a summer officers' training camp.

The Y-Teen plaque of the month, earned through service projects, is presented to Eastern Hills by officers Farley and Lohrke; Mrs. Tannahill, sponsor; Moody; Logston; Logan; Rogers; Mrs. Thompson, sponsor.

And Service To School

Many of these Sophomores were introduced to Y-Teens for the first time this year. They took an active part by selling tickets to shows, and painting many of the signs to boost school spirit.

Strums And Hums Of Music

The orchestra, Rogers, White, McCollum, Donaldson, Fox, Hicks, McCoy, and Moberg, accompanied the chorus in the Highland Fling. Miss Baker conducts the orchestra.

Proudly marching for Eastern Hills in the Stock Show Parade is the Highlander Band, wearing bright blue uniforms for the first time.

The stage band. Row 1: Self, Gordon, Bacon, Moberg, Mr. Martin, director; Row 2: Anderson, McCoy, Fox, Hicks, McCollum, Sloan, made their debut at the St. Valentine's dance held February 13 at the Woman's Club.

Posing in front of the new school are majorettes Sandra Worsham, Jeanette Bunton, Genice Sargent, and Linda Thomerson. They were selected from girls who displayed qualities of grace, showmanship, twirling ability, and leadership.

Standing at attention is Drum Major Joel Bacon. During band performances, he struts ahead of the band leading the way and giving signals.

Band, Majorettes

Band officers are Bill Buckellew, Tommy Gandy, Linda Davis, and Larry Self.

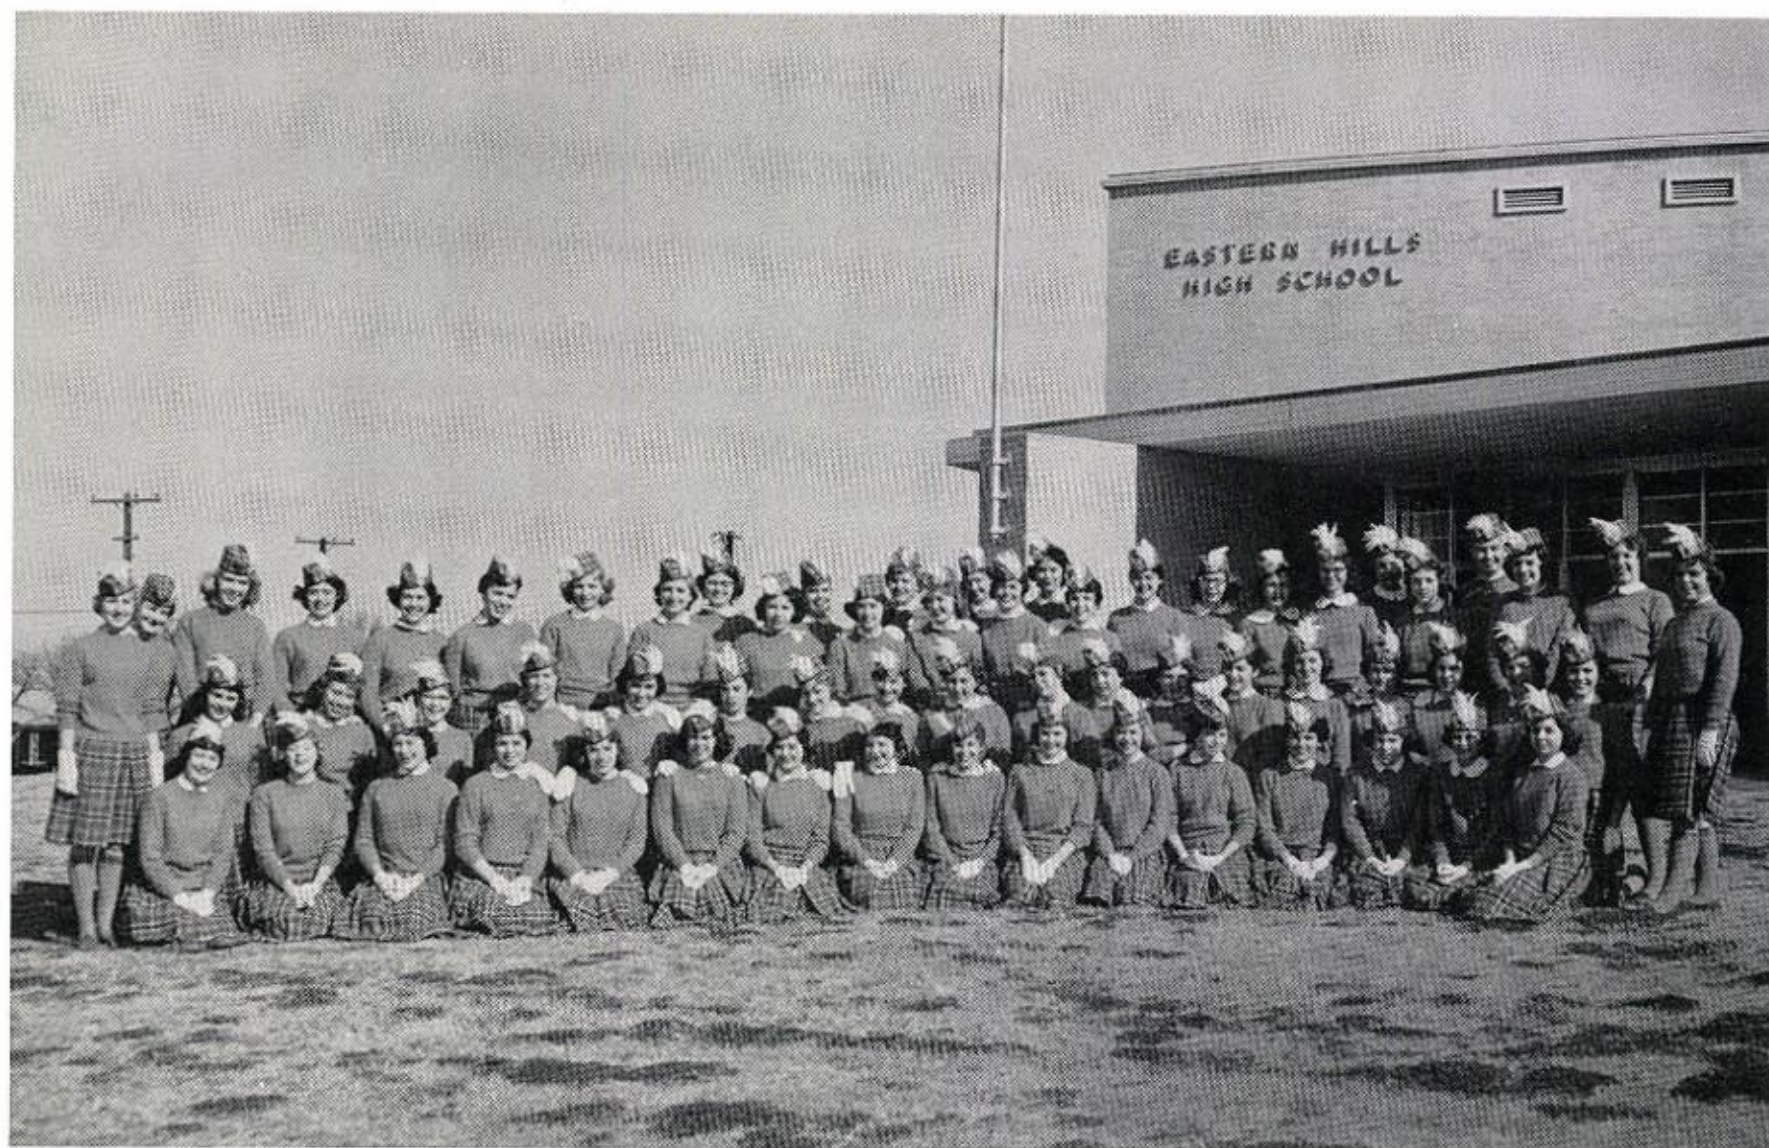

The 1959-60 Highlander band, made up of 57 members, makes a colorful appearance performing in various band contests and in parades.

Show Off Uniforms

Miss Corinne Howard was elected the Highlander Band Sweetheart for 1959-1960. A flute player and flag bearer, Corinne was crowned by Drum Major Joel Bacon at the Brewer-Eastern Hills football game.

The new pep club, the Highlandettes, sponsored by Mrs. Havins, enthusiastically supports the Highlanders.

Cheerleaders And Pep Club

Leading the Highlandettes in drill formations are drill leaders A. Day, Dameron, Simms, Sells, Spina, Hadsell, Phelps, Haughton, and J. Day.

Lead School Spirit

Stairsteps in aiding school spirit are the alternate cheerleaders along with Miss Crump, sponsor; Glenn Vinson; Athelyn Jackson; and Jerri Jane Braswell.

WILLIAM HAZLITT

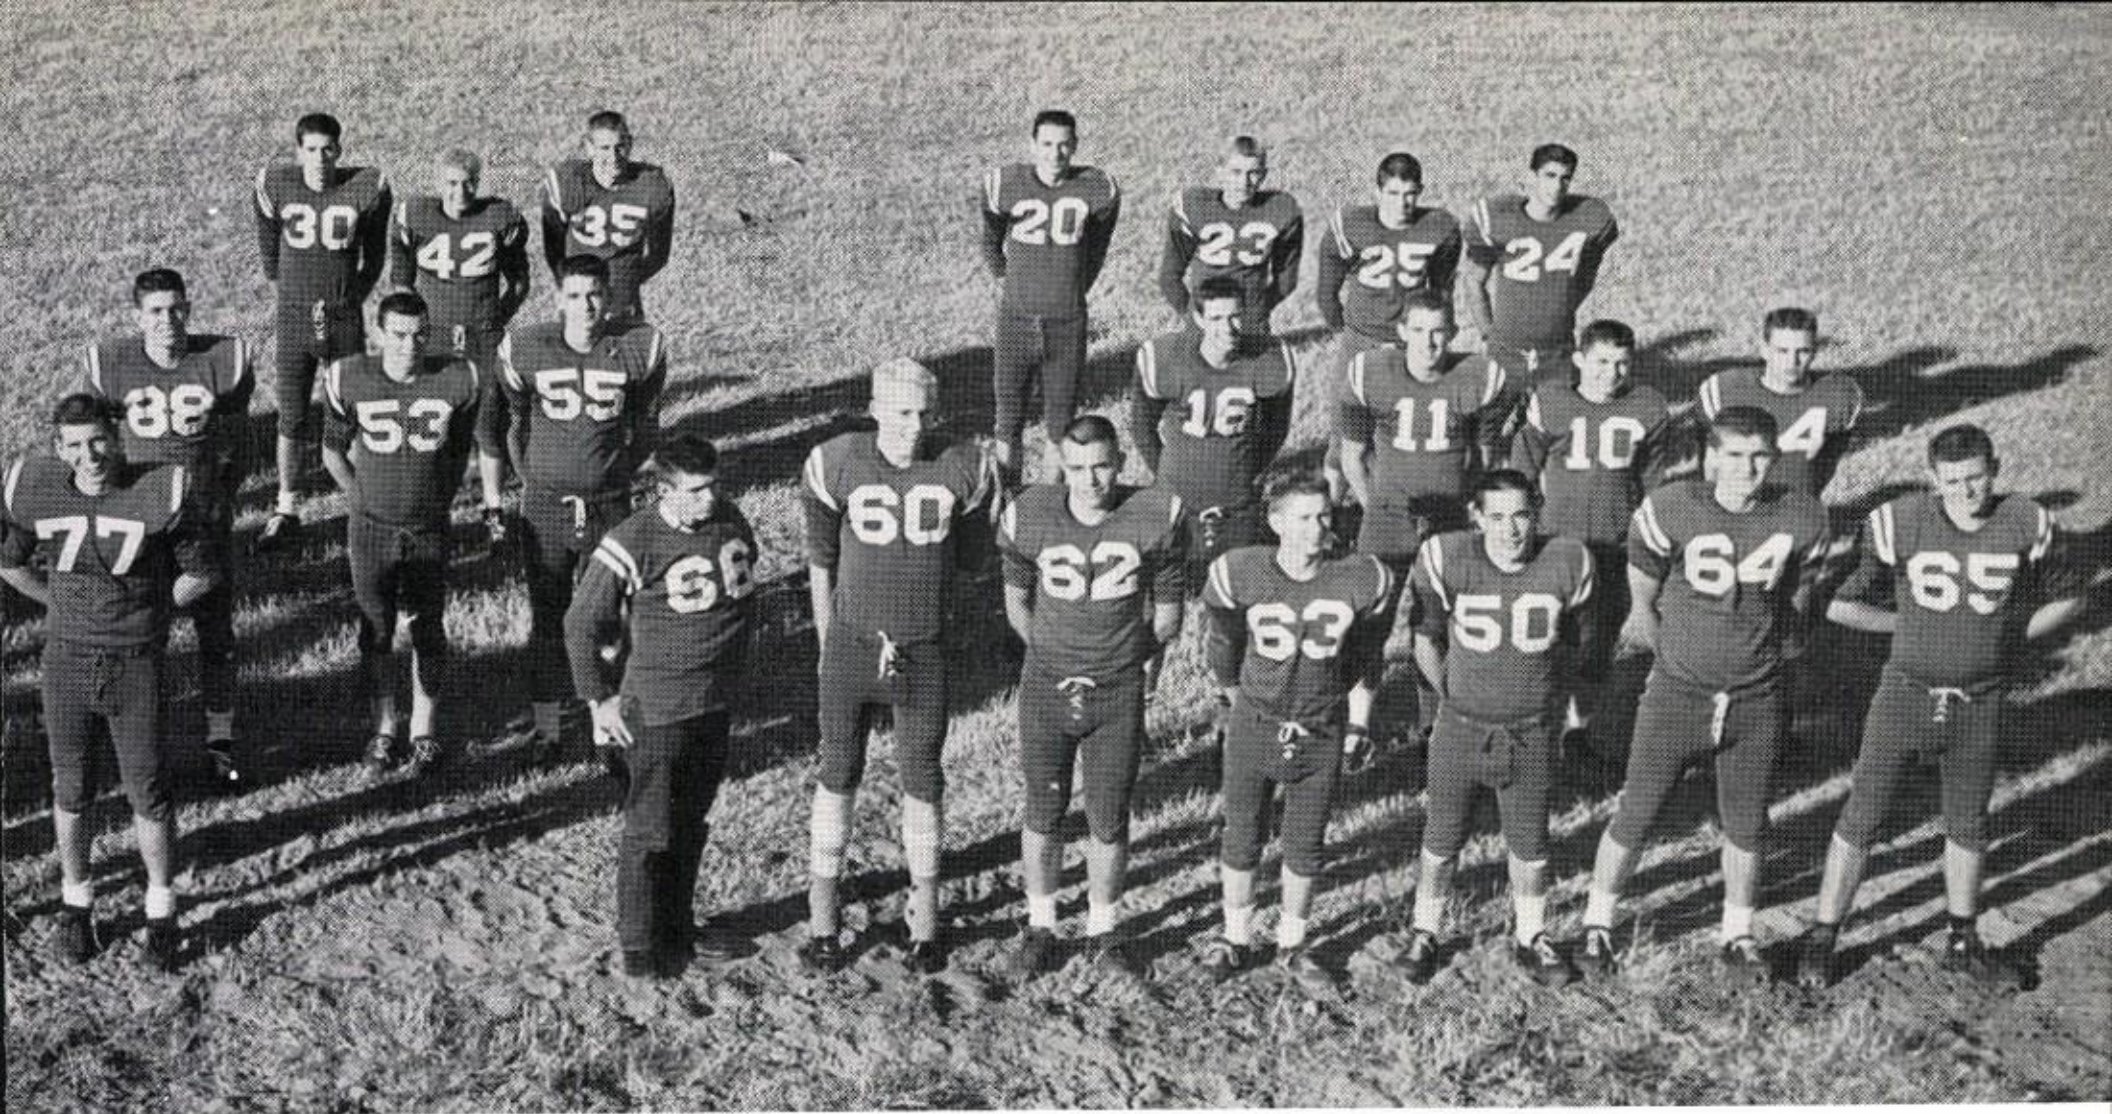

THE 1959-60 HIGHLANDERS began a fine tradition this year by showing exceptional spirit and sportsmanship on and off the field. The enthusiasm and encouragement displayed by the coaches and managers helped to build an outstanding first football team for Eastern Hills.

Fun, Fall, And

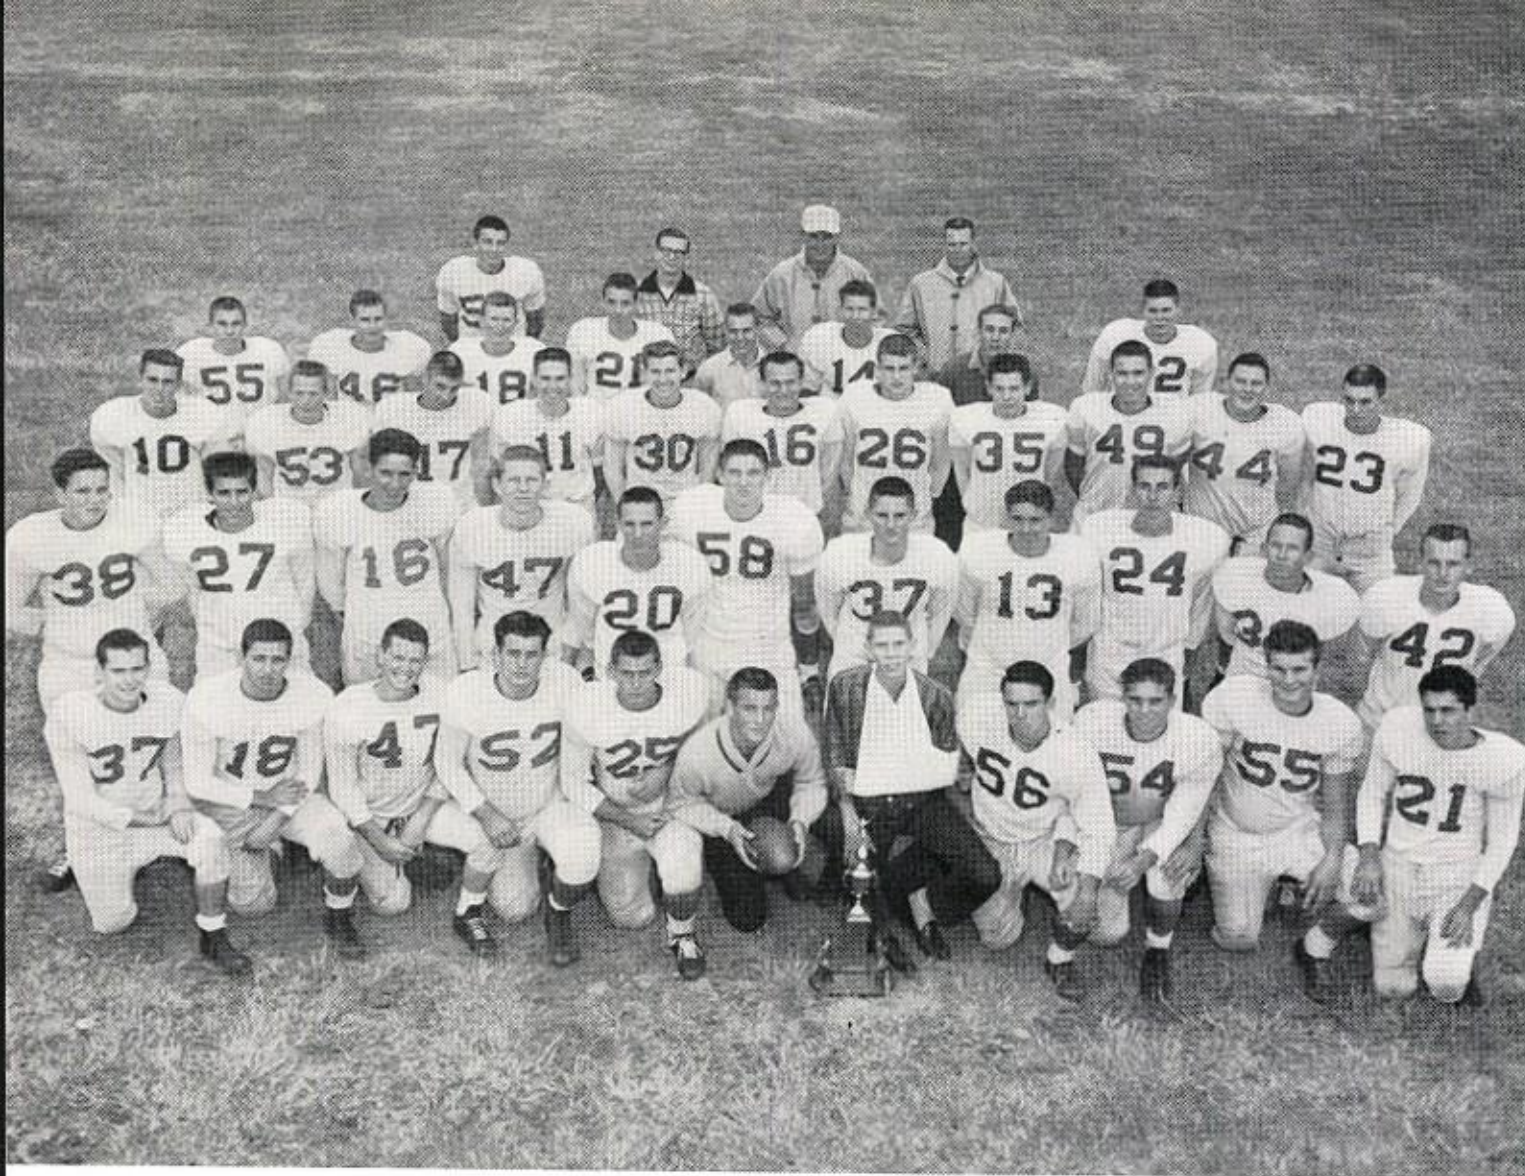

Tommy Bratcher, George Bradford, and Bill Roper were the 1959-60 tri-captains of the Highlanders' football team.

Football Go Hand In Hand

Miss Diann Jordon reigned as the 1959-60 Highlander football queen. Diann was crowned by the tri-captains at an evening pep rally.

Basketball Season Begins

Linda Denny was chosen by the basketball team to reign as the 1960 Highlander Basketball Queen. The announcement was made in an issue of the Tartan.

The top six Highlanders who carried the load for Eastern Hills this year are George Cotter, Dwayne Needham, Odie Dollins, Kenneth Williford, Truett Absher and, not pictured, Weldon Ward. Led by Coach McBee, these boys helped finish out a successful basketball season.

Highlander B-Team Finishes Second, Showing Promising Future

Kenneth Williford goes up against two Mesquite defenders for a lay-up in the Highlanders' first district game. Eastern Hills took the victory with a 59-42 score. Williford went on to all-district honors for the third straight year.

Dwayne Needham draws two Castleberry defenders in a scoring play that helped overrun the Lion quintet 32-30. In this district play-off game Needham dumped in the winning bucket to break a late tie and edge out Castleberry in the first game of the play-offs. Needham was a co-captain and three year letterman for Eastern Hills.

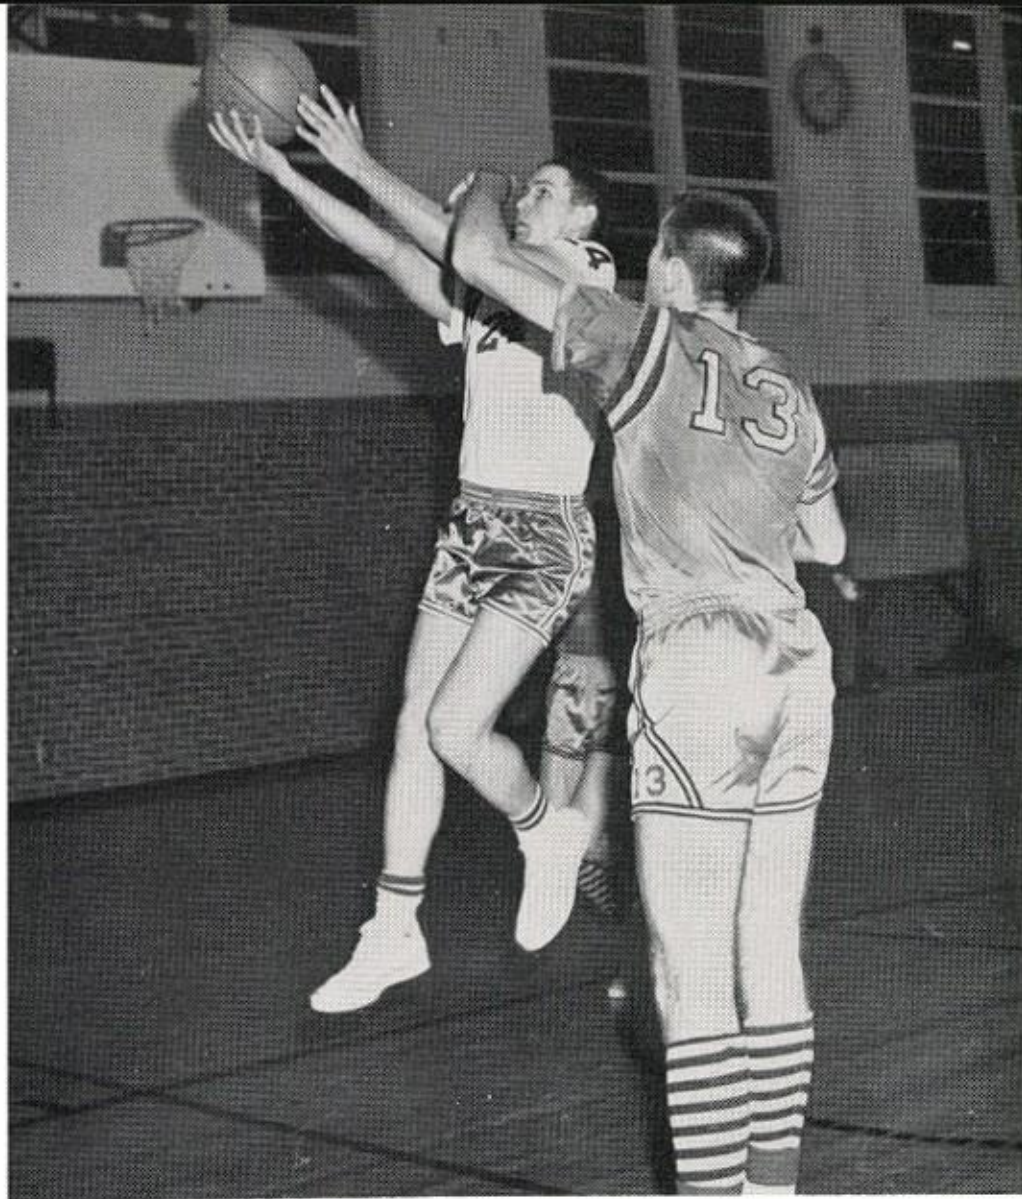

Highlanders Finish

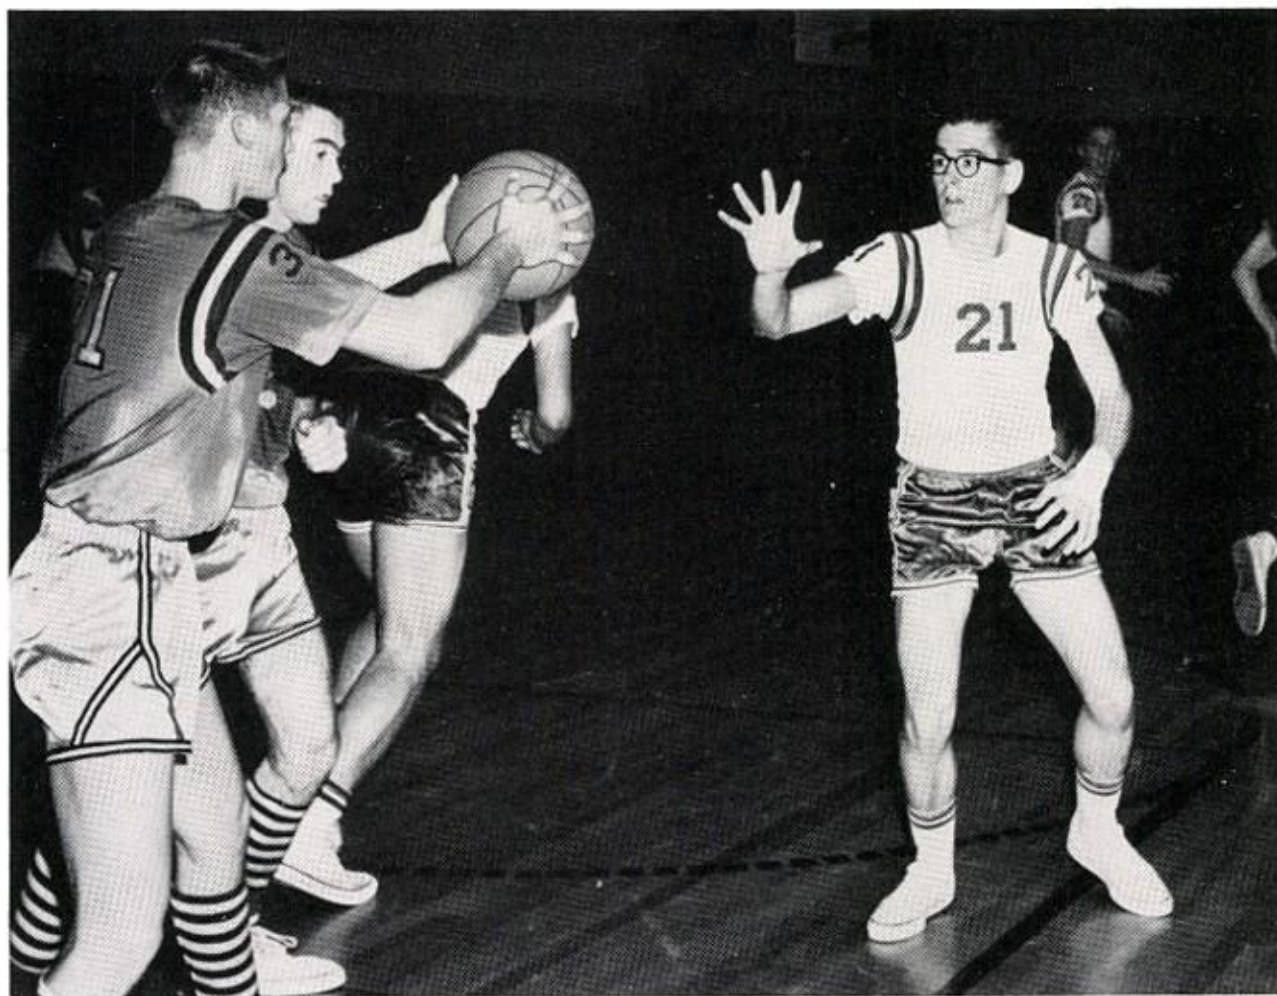

George Cotter goes up against Castleberry in the first half district play. The Highlanders overcame Castleberry in a one game play-off 42-39, and took the first half championship. Cotter, the only starting junior on the squad, filled in the center slot and was one of the top rebounders for the Highlanders.

A driving lay-up brings two points for the Highlanders as Weldon Ward goes alone against Laneri. Ward was the playmaker for the Highlanders this year and lettered for his third year. He was elected co-captain and showed his leadership with steady playing the entire season.

Second In District

Truett Absher defends in pre-district play against Laneri. Bouncing back from a previous loss to the Ravens, the Highlanders took the game 55-39. Absher finished the season with a lucky thirteen point average and won all-district honors for the second year.

The E.H.S. track team gained the District Championship under the guidance of George Mitcham and Bob Keck. The team elected Bryan Gregory as their captain.

Takes District

Miss Nan Logan reigned as the 1959-1960 Track Queen. She was elected by popular vote of the team.

Jerry McClain clears 5 feet 11 inches at district meet for a new record in the high jump.

Shot-put man George Cotter places the shot well enough to win a second place ribbon in district competition.

Highlanders Compete

The mile relay, Bill Ingram, Bryan Gregory, Fred Grimes, and Doyle Alexander, finished first in district competition.

Jerry Harrell skims the hurdle in the good form that carried him to a second place in district meet.

In Regional

Tony Morton clears the bar in the form that assisted him in winning the state pole-vaulting title for Eastern Hills.

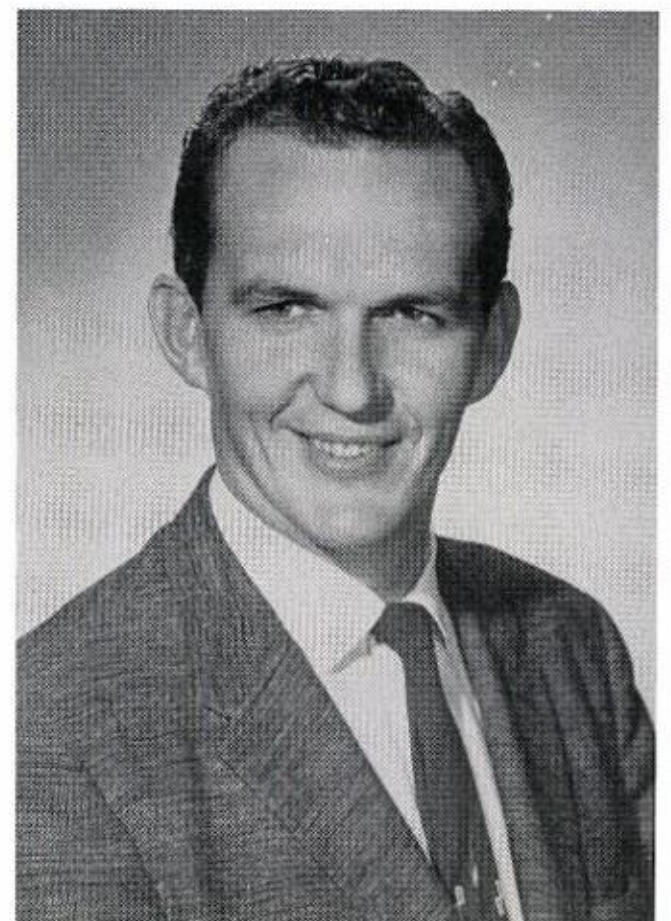

David Teague rounds the curve in practice for his 440 district victory.

The 440 relay team composed of Ronnie Hiatt, Bryan Gregory, Tony Morton, and Dwight Martin ran good time of 44.3 seconds to take first in district this year.

Doug Brown shows the other members of the district champion golf team how he "sunk it." Members who contributed their time and effort were Bruce Schnitzer, Richard Martin, Doug Brown, Mike Martin, and Fred Culberson. Four of these boys are Sophomores and we can expect them to win more honors in coming years.

Golf Holds District Championship

The golf team was coached by Ronnie McBee.

Girls Excel, Too

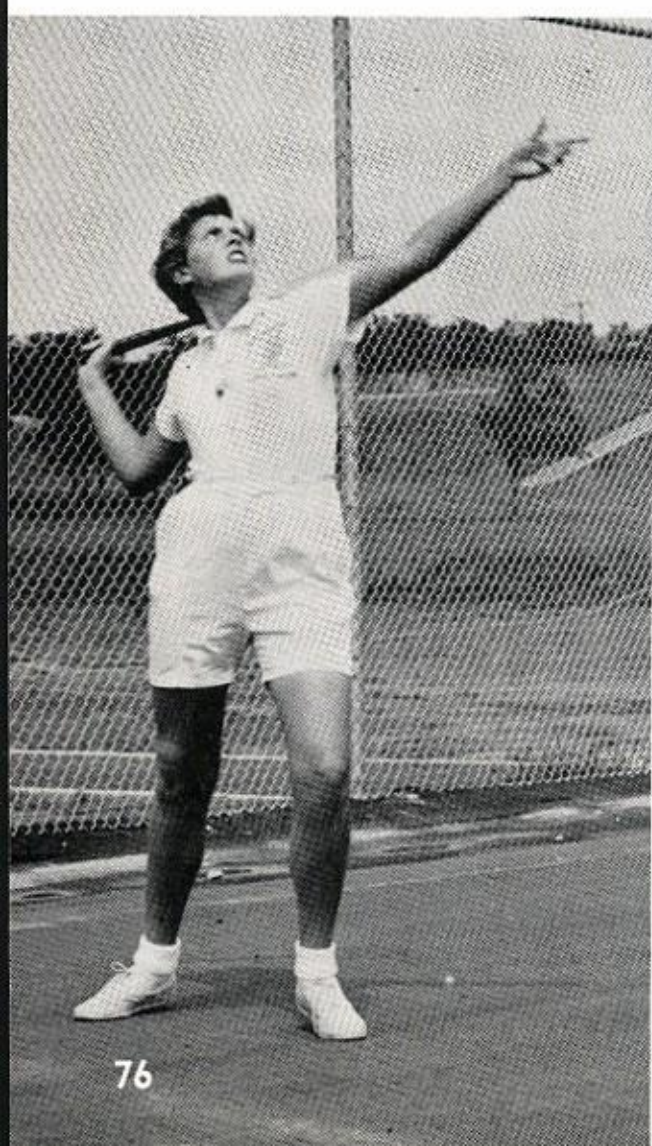

E.H.S. volleyball team played a round robin tournament against three other schools in this district. Playing seven games and losing only one, they played Paschal for district championship and lost by one point. Co-captains are Carolyn Ransom and Nannie Lane. They received a second place trophy.

Tennis Teams Take

Mary Ridgway, singles representative, displays her winning service form which led her to victory in the district meet and to semi-finals in regionals.

Key Stevens, left, and Darlene Pitts, right, exhibit their net game which aided them in winning district honors and gaining the finals in regional play, which they lost only after a hard-fought match.

All-District Honors

Jerry McClain, preparing to serve, demonstrates his fine service, which won for him district singles and the quarter-finals in the regional meet.

Don Nagle and Jack Brittain, doubles team, execute a difficult net shot. After winning recognition in district play, they advanced to the quarter-finals in regional play.

Enthusiasm

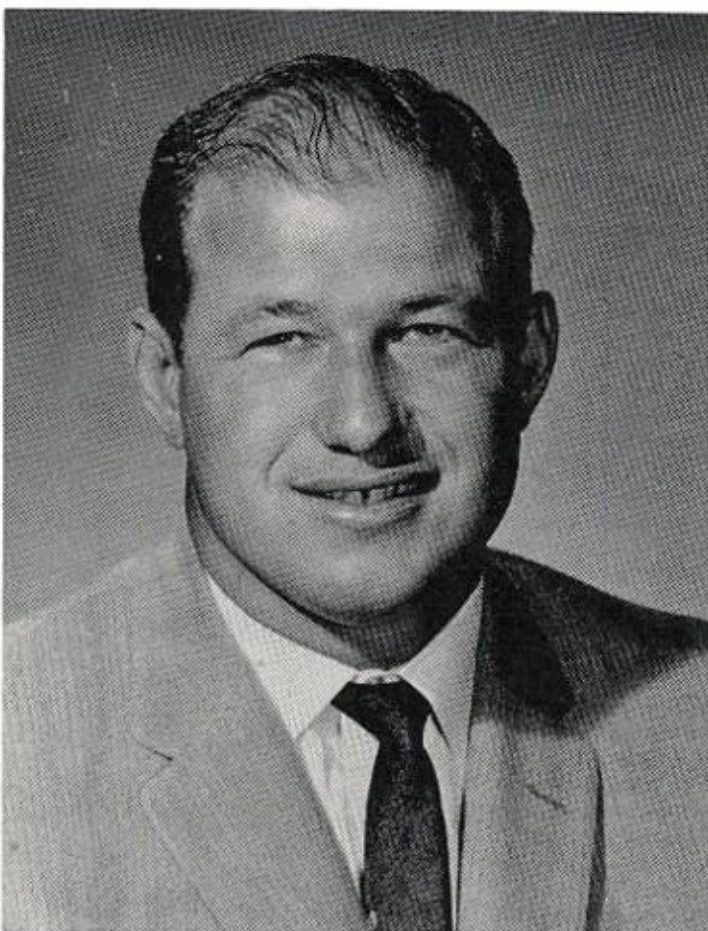

Miss Omalu Branch was chosen by the baseball team to reign as the 1959-1960 Baseball Queen.

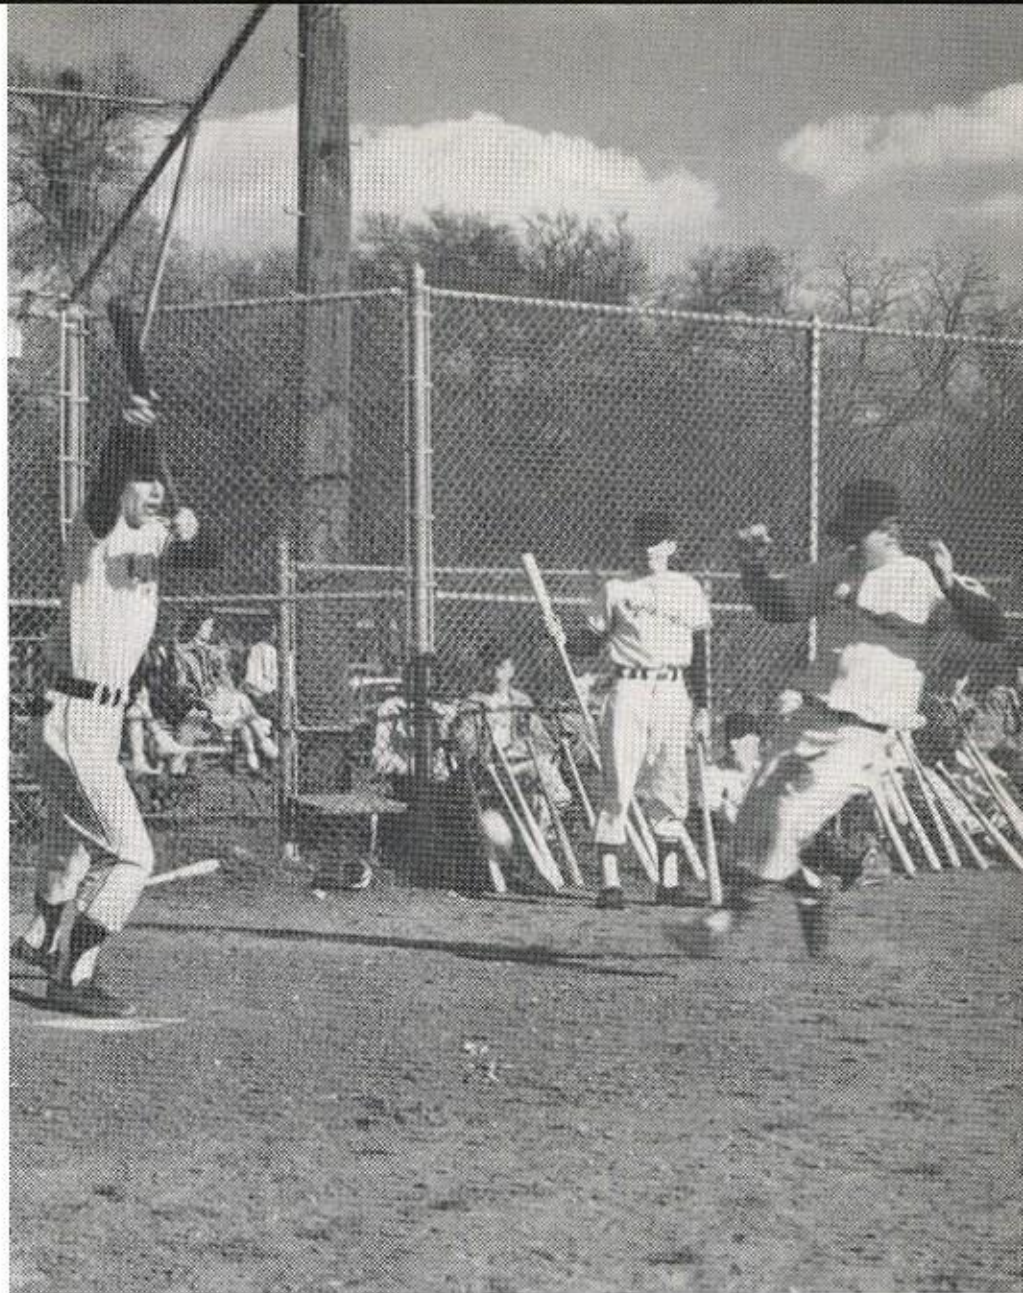

Third baseman Odie Dollins lashes out for a double in second half play against Brewer. The Highlanders played in top form as they downed the Bears 11 to 5. A previous defeat to the Bears cost the Highlanders one of their four district losses.

Hills Nine Place Second In

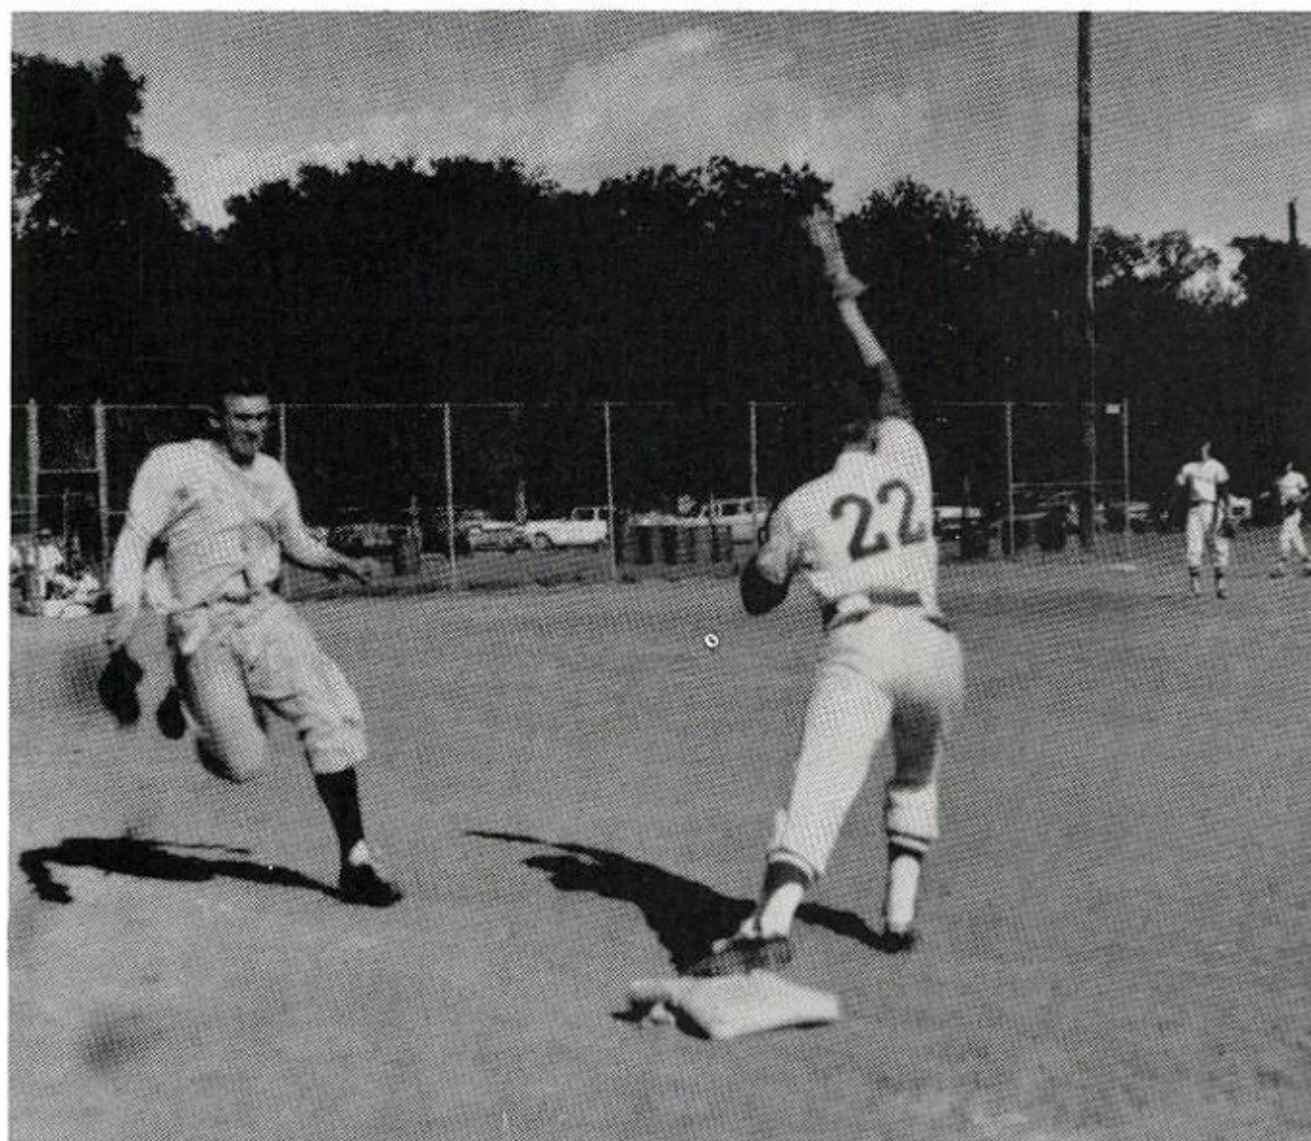

Under the leadership of Coach Bill Elliott, the baseball team had a successful season ending with a 22-7 record.

Eastern Hills squeezes in a run to prolong a late inning loss to Carrollton in the tough doubleheader that wound up the '60 season for the Highlanders. With smart playing and hustling most of these players in the past three years have compiled tremendous record of 100 wins and 25 losses. Outstanding members of these teams are Gene Bickley, Kenneth Williford, Truett Absher, Weldon Ward, Wilson Frazier, Bobby Williams, Lynn Spain, Bryan McBrayer, and Ronnie McClain.

District

Kenneth Williford takes an assist in the second Carrollton game. A 4-2 loss sealed the gate on Eastern Hills' hopes for district honors. A good season record was turned in this year of 22 wins and only 7 losses, with four of these losses in district play.

*The temple the teachers build

Who's Who Show

Tying for first place in the Senior class scholastically, BETH BOURDONNAY, has been elected to Who's Who for high scholastic achievement and outstanding contribution to school functions. A three year Leonard's Star Award winner, Beth is graduating summa cum laude. She is an enthusiastic member of the National Honor Society, Bowling Club, Junior Classical League, and Y-Teens for which she is chaplain. Beth received a nomination for the D.A.R. award and Massachusetts Institute of Technology Alumni Award for her outstanding abilities.

Outstanding in many activities is TOMMY BRATCHER. As one of the football team's tri-captains, he received his third letter this fall. Serving as president of both National Honor Society and Student Council is part of his busy schedule. In addition, Tommy has been a favorite finalist for the past two years, and was a Mr. E.H.H.S. finalist. He is a two-year member of the Spanish Club, has received the Leonard's Star Award three times, and will graduate a scholarship winner.

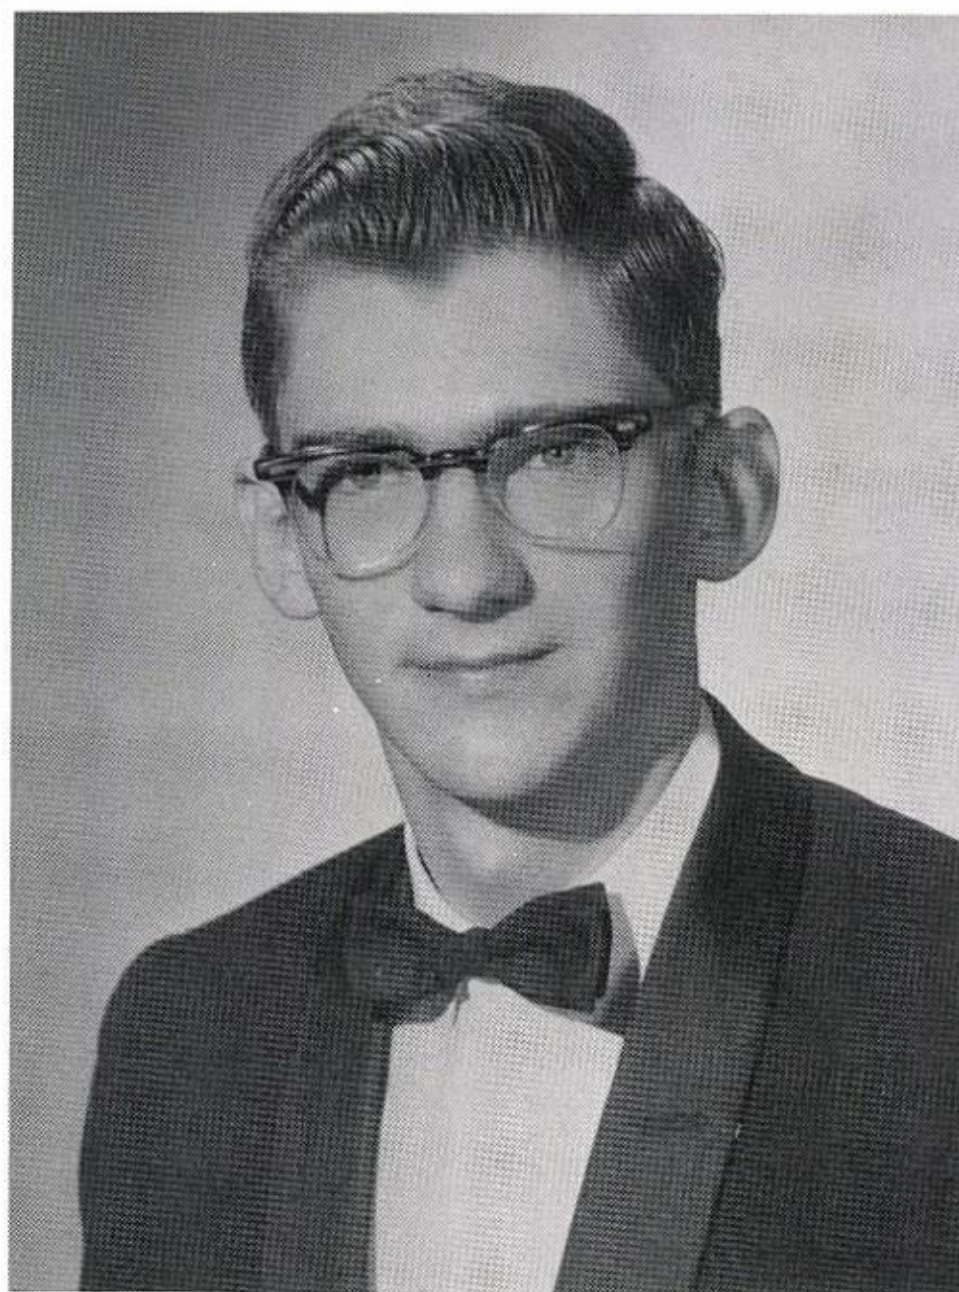

Leadership, Scholarship

As cheerleader this year and alternate last year, OMALU BRANCH has supported the Highlanders in all sports. She was chosen by the baseball team to reign as their queen for 1960. Also active in other phases of school life, Omalu is a member of National Honor Society, Y-Teens, Pan-American Club, and has danced with the Footlight Four. She was a favorite finalist and has received the Leonard's Star Award for the last two years.

A member of the band for four years, CORINNE HOWARD was elected its sweetheart this year. Active in other school affairs, she is a member of Y-Teens and was a two-year member of the Spanish Club. For her scholastic achievements, Corinne was elected vice-president of the National Honor Society and has received the Leonard's Star Award for three years. As a Senior, she represented Eastern Hills as princess at the T.W.C. May Fete Ball.

TOM PAUKERT has received much recognition for his scholastic achievements. Eligible for the test given by the Mathematics Association and Society of Actuaries, he won the award for Eastern Hills. He was also one of nine students in Fort Worth to be recognized for outstanding work in math and science by the local chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers. A charter member of the National Honor Society, Tom was also a semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Test.

All Round Students

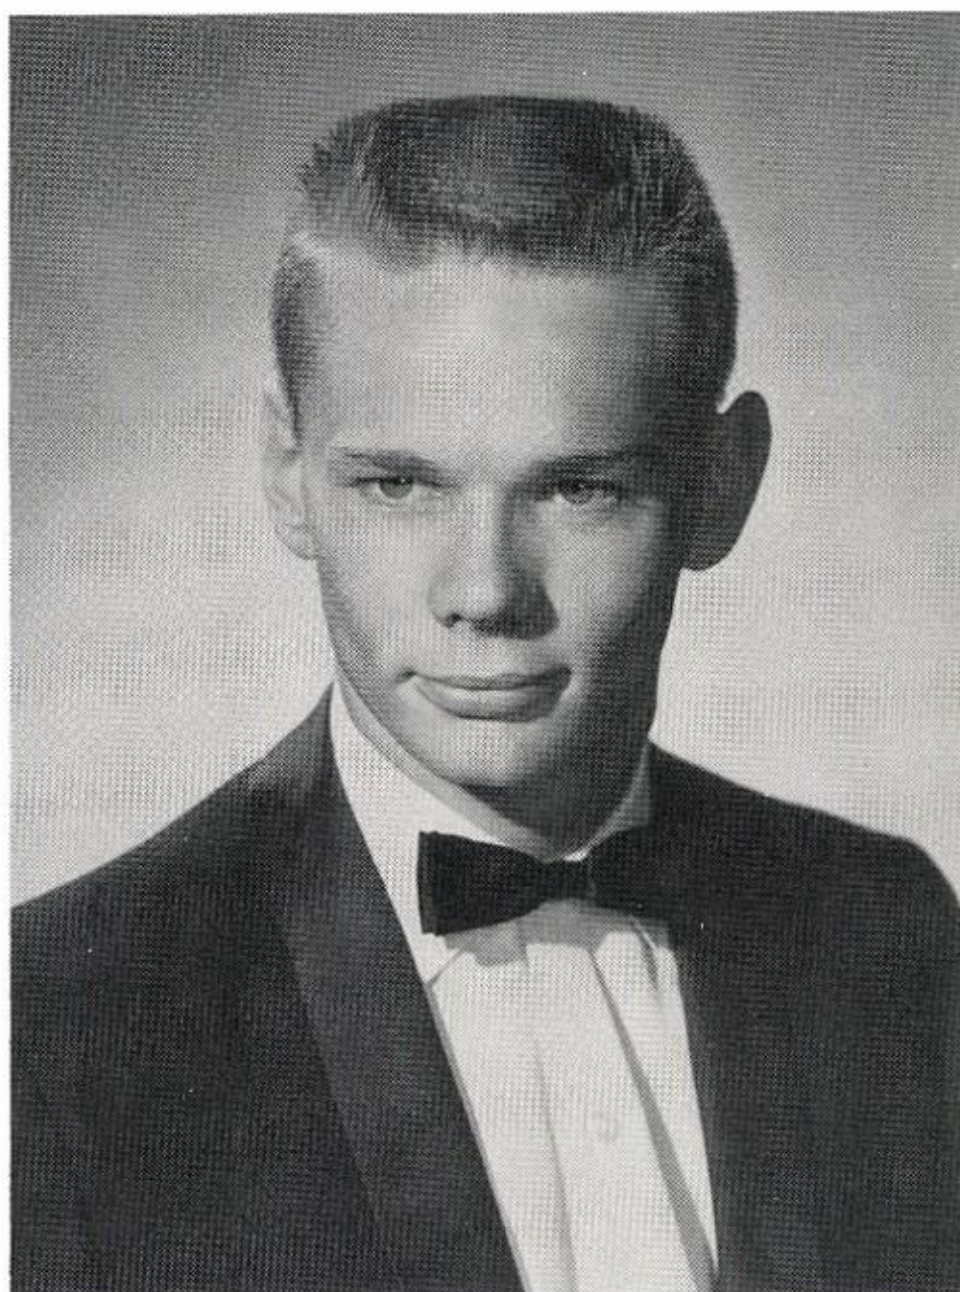

Tying for first place in the Senior class scholastically, MARTHA MEISSNER is active in many other phases of school life as well. She is secretary of the Senior class, vice-president of Future Teachers of America, a Miss E.H.H.S. finalist, and a member of the National Honor Society, Junior Classical League, and Y-Teens Clubs. Her high scholastic achievements were rewarded with three Leonard's Star Awards and a nomination for the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Alumni Award. In addition to these honors, Martha will graduate summa cum laude.

As co-editor of the school yearbook, the Clan, JUDY KLABZUBA has a full-time job. Still, she finds time to participate in many club activities. Judy is a member of the Junior Classical League, Y-Teens, Bowling Club, and Bio-Chem-Phy, an honorary science club. Maintaining a high grade average, she is a two year Leonard's Star Award winner and a cum laude graduate.

In Who's Who

Sports have played a large part in the high school days of GEORGE BRADFORD. As a three-year letterman in football he was selected for All-District in his Junior year and was elected captain in his Senior year. Having formerly lettered two years in baseball, this year George also came out for track. His Senior year brought his second letter in basketball as well. He found time to serve as vice-president of the Junior class and has been a member of Allied Youth and Junior Red Cross.

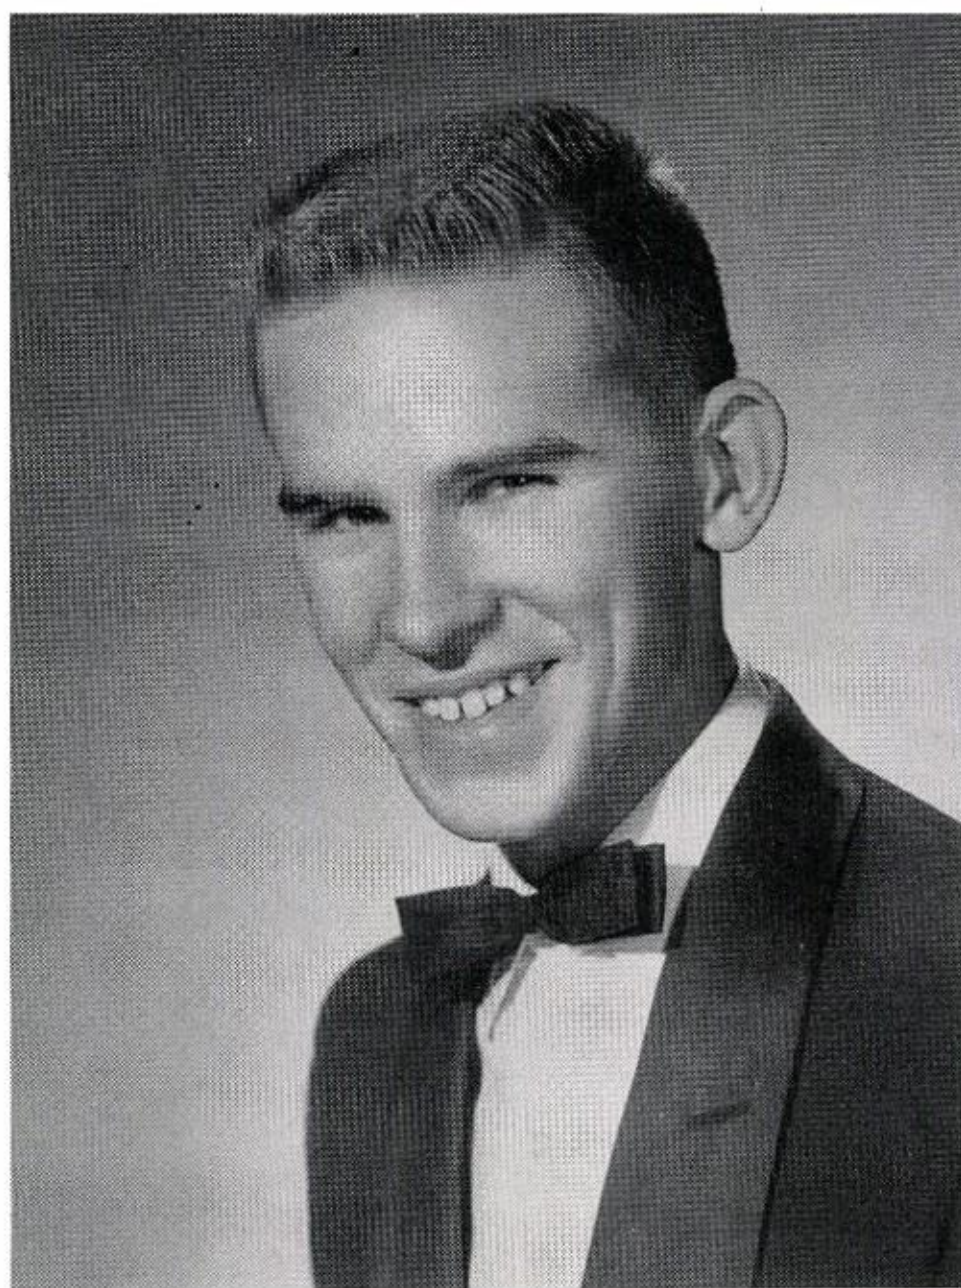

Concert-mistress of the orchestra, NANCY ROGERS, participates in many different extra-curricular activities. Her busy schedule includes being first vice-president of Y-Teens and program chairman of Future Teachers of America. She is active in National Honor Society, a member of the Clan and Tartan Staffs and was a finalist for Miss E.H.H.S. Nancy, graduating magna cum laude, has received many awards including the Leonard's Star Award for three years.

Elite Few Chosen

Co-editor of the Tartan and reporter for the Star Telegram Youth Spotlight, BOB WATKINS represented Eastern Hills at the annual Elks Club Youth Government Day. Bob was a member of the Senior play cast and a finalist for Mr. E.H.H.S. His interest in journalism won him a certificate from the Fort Worth Press Association and his interest in Eastern Hills won him a place in Who's Who.
